

Contents

Pages 1

War is the greatest human disaster and human rights violation!

Let us vote out as many warmongers as possible in the House of Councilors election

ŌYAMA Ayumu

Page 2

Please join the Summer 2025 appeal for fund

Standing Steering Committee, Activist Group Shisō-Undō

Who are burning the Middle East?

Criticism on the bombing to Iran by Israel and the U.S.

ŌMURA Saiichi

Participating in the Tokyo Action of the “Network of Okinawa and West Japan”

Let us struggle against wars, and the military bases nationwide

OKAMOTO Shigeki (Fukuoka resident)

Page 3

Metropolitan groups action to visit the Ministry of Defense

To eliminate the repeated sexual violence incidents by the U.S. soldiers in Okinawa, we demand the government take the effective measures, conduct concrete investigations, and fundamentally revise the U.S. - Japan Status of Forces Agreement

We protest against MP NISHIDA Shōji's desecration to the Okinawa's peace education!

This is a challenge to the entire Japanese peace movement

SAKAGAMI Mitsuko

Senryū poems

Warai-Take (Laughter mushroom)

Movement activities guide

Page 4

Protest action by the Liaison Conference “NO to breakdown of the Constitution”

Angry “rice riots” in front of the prime minister’s official residence and the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries

Editorial office

Statement to the Ministry of Agriculture, Forestry and Fisheries

Worker’s report

About the current status and issues of the non-regular workers in the workplaces of the public schools

SAKAI Satoe (General Secretary, Education Workers and Amalgamated Union Osaka)

Voices of the victims of the nuclear power plant accident (47)

The evils of My Number Cards and the irresponsibility about the nuclear accident

More and more people are dying shortly after returning home town

KOKUBU Tomio (Member of So-So no Kai Association of the victims of the nuclear power plant accident)

Page 5

Continuing to spread the crisis of the wars and the poverty of the workers

How should we, the working class, struggle? (2)

The limits of capitalism as seen in the situation in Japan

NIHEI Hisakatsu (Former chairperson, the Japanese National Railways Struggle United Front Conference)

Headlight column

Gender equality after 123 years

Page 6

OKAMURA Yukinori (Curator at Maruki Gallery For The Hiroshima Panels) lectured at Meiji University

“The Hiroshima Panels” are the endless collaborative works with the audiences

IJŪIN Takashi (Student, Meiji University)

Participating in the study tour of the south area of the Korean Peninsula

Learning the truth of the history makes the fuels for the struggles

TAKANASHI Akiyoshi (General Secretary, Association of the citizens in Kanagawa to think about the education of history)

Page 7

The 21st General Conference of World Federation of Democratic Youth held in Namibia
Solidarity among the youth against imperialism

NIIOKA Yūta (Central Headquarters of the Peace and Friendship Festival of the Japanese Youth and Students)

Pages 8–9

The idea and thought of Lenin in the Third World

Commemorating the 100th anniversary of passing Lenin and Today's world (5)

Vanguards in the revolutionary movements in Africa

Rim Yu-cheol (Associate Professor, Foreign Language Department of Korea University)

Pages 10–11

Ensemble stage for the 70th Anniversary of establishing the General Association of Korean Residents

The festival of the art weaved by the spirit of the national independence

IWANISHI Takashi

Exhibition “Past, Present and Future of AWAZU Kiyoshi's residence (1972)”

Also exhibiting the artworks for the covers of “Shisō Undō”

TURUNO Keiichi

The legacy of the German Peasants' War

Albrecht Dürer and Thomas Müntzer

Jenny Farrell (Literary Critic)

Reading "Opening the door of Japanese literature, The forth door" (Written by TATENO Masahiro)

Drawing the line through “AKUTAGAWA Ryūnosuke”

MAKIKO Yoshimaru (HOWS class member)

Exhibition guide: Exhibition of “YAMASHITA Kikuji” by the gallery collection

Page 12

From the readers postcards

What “Reiwa rice riots” shows

NIHEI Kazuo (Miharumachi in Fukushima Prefecture resident)

Piercing Reproach column

The “red” regime born in the Indian Ocean

Random thoughts: “Mother Courage and her Children”

From the stage by the Bungakuza in May, 2025

AKIBA Yūichi (Professor Emeritus, Waseda University)

From the editorial office